

Wilhelmina Weight of Hilo Princess For Big Island

Judge Matthewman and County Attorney Heen Hold Opposite Views.

Judge John Albert Mathewman of the West Hawaii circuit court, which holds forth at Kailua, Kona, and William H. Heen, deputy coputy attorney of the County of Hawaii, hold opinion diametrically opposed on the appropriateness of the verdict of the jury, which convicted former Supervisor J. N. Koomoa of Kona and John Kabeleku, a political, benchman of the grafting fraternity of West Hawaii.

This state of affairs was recently brought out through the efforts of Henry W. Kinney of the Hilo Tritum, who wrote to Attorney General Thayer for information in regard to certain correspondence which was exchanged on the diverging views of the judge and deputy county attorney in question. Thayer wrote to Matthewsman on the question and the latter gave his consent to making the correspondence public.

Opinions Differ.
The astonishing part of the divergence of opinion between the jurist and the county official is that the judge would not have found the grafters guilty and he even in the jury box instead of on the bench, while Heen is emphatic in his contention that the jury found correctly and that Kooman and Kahakokulu were undoubtedly guilty.

Judge Matthewman's letter to the attorney general follows:

"On Saturday, November 29, the last day of October term, a jury in this court found J. N. Koomoa and John Kahaloakahi guilty of conspiracy to defraud the County of Hawaii of $3 representing two days pay, at $1.50 per day, for which it had been claimed Kahoaloakahi had been paid for labor not performed."

performed. "Although surprised at the verdict, the prosecution had been entirely regular, and I did not care to get inside the verdict simply because it would come to a different conclusion if serving as a juror myself. I imposed on such man a sentence of sixty days and a fine of $400. They are now in jail. "Since the day mentioned the case has frequently been in my mind, and entirely of my own initiative, I have decided to bring it to your attention for yesterday as you might think proper. Yesterday I interviewed several outside parties who had followed the evidence in the court room and found it to be the general opinion that an honest zeal for the good work of the so-called Probe Commission had carried the jury over and beyond the proposition of reasonable doubt on which they had been instructed. "Undoubtedly the respective attorneys in the case, Messrs. W. H. Heen and Eugene C. Williams, had been furnished with detailed statements of the evidence, if you should see fit to make inquiries."

Attorney Heen's Reply.
Attorney General Thayer's letter from Heen on the same question is as follows:
"In reply to your letter of the 2d instant, concerning the case of Joseph N. Koomoa and John Kahalekulu, who were found guilty of conspiracy at the last Kailua term of court, I beg to say that the verdict of the jury was fully sustained by the evidence."

made by the evidence. The first defendant was Joseph N. Koumona at that time. He was the defendant in the commission of the offense was running for the office of supervisor from North and South Kohala to succeed himself; E. Wright, one of the co-defendants in the same case and who pleaded guilty to the charge was road overseer at the time the offense was committed. He requested prior testimony by Koumona to work for him politically. John Kahalekulu was a road laborer in the district of South Kona at the time; on or about the day upon which the offense was committed John Kahalekulu went from South Kona to North Kona to receive wages for his road laborers which Koumona had promised him. John Koumona at that time told Kahalekulu to do politics for him, and also handed him a note to Wright telling Wright to give Kahalekulu two extra days on the payroll; Wright upon receiving the note gave Kahalekulu the two extra days. Wright added the same upon the payroll that was given to him. Koumona for the two extra days so given no work was performed by Kahalekulu as he and the other two well knew.

"According to my theory of the case Koomoa's connection with the conspiracy was to secure his re-election at all costs even to the extent of defrauding the county, and Wright's connection was to secure the same result with the idea of receiving appointment as road overseer through the hands of Koomoa. So far as Kahalekulu was concerned his purpose was to obtain something for nothing. There was evil and it may be that he was entitled to some pay from Koonoa, but he certainly was not entitled to receive the same from the county."

MISS WILHELMINA WEIGHT,
Who is to represent Hawaii in Princess Section of Floral Parade.

Miss Wilhelmina Weight of Hilo is to be the representative of the Island of Hawaii in the princess section of the Floral Parade again this year. Miss Weight rode for the Big Island last year, and made a splendid appearance in the line of march. She is trying to get the same horse to ride this time that she had the year ago.

"The selection was made by the Hilo board of trade. When Miss Weight was asked to ride she made a condition that she have the same steel as she had before, and the board of trade committee is arranging to get it for her. She will arrive in Honolulu next week, and it is safe to say that the crowds that are coming here from Hawaii to see the parade and other Carnival events will be proud of their representative in the big pageant.

Arrangements for the other islands, including Oahu, are rapidly being completed under the direction of J. S. Dias, chairman of the princess section. Necessary leis were ordered yesterday by Dias, and the costumes are being prepared.

"At today's prices the planters have $118,000 worth of sugar ahead so the price during the next ten days is going to be rather important," said A. M. Newell, manager of the Sugar Factors' Company yesterday.

QUICK RELIEF OF ITCHING ECZEMA

Was Surprising — Inflammation Reduced in a Few Hours and Cure Soon Followed — Boy's Torture Had Been Intense for Years — Friend's Child had Eczema, Too

MOTHER TELLS HOW CUTICURA CURED BOTH

"When my boy was six years old, he suffered terribly with eczema. He could neither sit still nor lie quietly in bed."

for the itching was dreadful. He would irritate spots by scratching with his nails and that only made them worse. A doctor treated him and we tried almost every remedy but nothing seemed to spread. It started in a small place on the lower extremity and spread for two years until it very nearly covered the body. Finally I got Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment and Cuticura Pills and gave them according to directions. I used them in the morning and that evening. I kept the pills going and used them again and the improvement even in those few hours was surprising, the inflammation seemed to be so much less. I kept the boy on Cuticura Ointment the name of the Pills and the Soap and my boy was cured. My son is now in his seventeenth year and he has never had a return of the eczema. I have a child that had eczema on his face and limbs and I used the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. They acted on the child just as we found on our son and he was cured. I would recommend the Cuticura Remedies to anyone. Mrs. A. J. Cochran, 1923 Columbia Ave., Philadelphia, Pa.

Hon. K. Abe, former Governor of Tokio and at present a member of the house of peers of Japan, was a passenger aboard the T. K. N. steamer Chiyo Maru arriving in Honolulu yesterday. He was greeted here by a number of members of the local Japanese colony and spent the few hours allowed him during the stay of the Chiyo in port to visit a number of points of interest.

Mr. Abe, though speaking English rather imperfectly, is well posted on American affairs and especially on the condition of the Hawaiian Islands. He expressed himself yesterday as much gratified over the evidence of prosperity of the Japanese people in Honolulu.

"The manner in which the Japanese get along with persons of other races here in Honolulu and the way in which they join with their fellowmen in public affairs would be a lesson to those of other places who do not understand the sentiment as you seem to be here in Hawaii," said Mr. Abe.

The distinguished visitor continued on the Chiyo Maru yesterday afternoon. He is en route to Yokohama and here
